

AMERICAN ACADEMY™ OF OPHTHALMOLOGY

Mid-Year Forum 2017

Politics. Policy.
Practice Management.

April 26-29 • Washington, D.C.

Advocate for your patients.
Guide ophthalmology's future.

The Mid-Year Forum is one of the American Academy of Ophthalmology's most significant yearly meetings, bringing the ophthalmology community together to drive change and shape our profession's future.

Politics. Policy. Practice Management. At Mid-Year Forum 2017, you'll play a key role in driving the highest quality of care for your patients. You'll directly advocate with federal lawmakers during Congressional Advocacy Day, hear about the new administration's impact on health policy, and learn about public health approaches to reduce vision impairment.

Keynote Speaker

Michelle Bernard, Political Analyst, MSNBC and Founder, The Bernard Center for Women, Politics & Public Policy, will deliver the keynote presentation, The View From Washington, during dinner on April 27.

Register Today

Register for Mid-Year Forum 2017 and let our collective voice be heard. The registration fee is $200 ($250 after March 15). There is no fee for Congressional Advocacy Day. Academy members in training receive complimentary registration to all events.

aao.org/MYF

Protecting Sight. Empowering Lives.™