We're Open! Announcing Your Academy's New Museum

You did it! Thanks to the generosity of so many members and friends, the Academy has opened the world's only free, public museum dedicated to the fascinating science of sight—the Truhlsen-Marmor Museum of the Eye®.

Next time you're in San Francisco, see our ophthalmic past, present and future come alive through interactive exhibits, virtual reality experiences and the stories that connect our esteemed profession across the globe.
